EXT. WASTELAND - NOON

The truck where Alucard and his group slowly traversed through the plains as Vayne and Valentine silently look towards what is happening.

From behind along with some rations, Crystal is looking at the telescope while Edward sat chewing on his gum looking at Alucard's coffin.

EDWARD

Do you think vampires fart?

Crystal stopped looking at her telescope and look at Edward.

CRYSTAL

And you point is?

EDWARD

Well, since that coffin is kinda sealed tight, don't you think his fart will fumigate in there?

.....

EDWARD

I'm just saying, I don't want to be the guy who will open that when trouble starts banging and since he is our ace and all.

CRYSTAL

I guess it all comes down to which of us has the biggest guns.

Edward looked at Vayne and Valentine grinning with their weapons in the front and Edward looked at his revolver.

EDWARD

tsk.

From behind a couple of humans are on their trucks have also followed them closely.

The sun slowly sets and and from a distance Crystal saw a fight brewing.

CRYSTAL

Everyone stop!

The huge truck stopped and so did the other trucks behind.

VAYNE

What is it?

CRYSTAL

2' o clock! Something going on!

Vayne picked up her telescope and saw some werewolves fighting some ghouls.

VAYNE

Lycans...

VALENTINE

Out here?

VAYNE

I heard they roam in packs.

CRYSTAL

They are in packs! They are fighting those ghouls!

Not very far from them are a couple of Lycans fighting ruthlessly against't a large number of ghouls.

The lycans style is to slice and dice as they tear their enemies apart. But there are too many ghouls.

VAYNE

I think they are proctecting their territory..

VALENTINE

We should wait.

Edward steps back as the coffin slowly opens and Alucard steps out.

ALUCARD

I smell blood...

Crystal steps down and reports.

CRYSTAL

Sir, There seems to be a battle between lycans and some ghouls.

.....

Alucard steps out from the truck looked at the battle.

EDWARD

Lycans are supposed to be prideful creatures, noble and has very strong pride.

ALUCARD

Valentine, Vayne...

The two ladies step' out of the truck.

VALENTINE

My lord.

VAYNE

Were helping aren't we..

ALUCARD

Just take some shots from afar and dwindle the ghoul forces.

Crystal brough some sniper weapons.

CRYSTAL

I can help too. And so are they.

A couple of men also brought some sniper rifles.

ALUCARD

Indeed. Do what you must.

VALENTINE

FIRE AT WILL!!

They began shooting at the ghouls. The Lycans noticed the assistance and also started fighting a lot more furious.

Alucard watches closely at the two lycans that seem to be leading the group the first was a wolf covered with white fur while the other is covered in pitch black fur.

The group seems to be in harmony as their attacks keeps rendering their enemies guessing where they will come next.

as the last of the ghouls die the lycans began to sat and recover.

Alucard gave the signal and everyone went back up the truck and slowly approached the pack.

Alucard was at the truck with Vayne and Valentine when have approchahed near enough...

Stop right here.

Alucard steps out of the truck. The lights from the big truck lights up and he stood in front of the truck.

The two lycans that lead the group also approached him the others wanted to follow but they made a motion to wait.

VALENTINE
Think he will be alright?

VAYNE
The boss took down a giant. I'm just waiting what he will do next.

Alucard steps forward to meet the two leaders. As they neared the black one growled.

LUBU
You stench... Your somekind of vampire!

ALUCARD
That I am.

LUBU
What are you doing here!

The whiteone spoke.

ICE
Pardon my bother we have been through hell today.

.....

ICE
May I know what bring you and... your group here?

ALUCARD
We are merely passing. I can't help but notice your fighting style, it reminds me of an old acquaintance. Maybe you have heard of Glacius?

ICE Grandfather?

LUBU

How do you know our elder!

ALUCARD

Tell me. Which side did he choose during the war?

ICE

Neither. We lycans remained neutral.

LUBU

All we did was clear the mess of the ghouls you and the humans created.

ALUCARD

The ghouls...

ICE

They are threatening our livestock.

ALUCARD

May I speak to your leader?

LUBU

No one is allowed to speak to our father!

ICE

We may have to decline.

ALUCARD

A pity but we have to cross this way.

LUBU

Is that a challenge?!

ICE

It would be more prudent to turn back.

ALUCARD

I'm sorry but we have to go through here.

Ice and Lubu bared their teeth and gnarled.

VAYNE

um.. Boss?

ALUCARD

I see..

The lights from the other trucks light up and both groups are surrounded by a large number of ghouls.

EDWARD

WERE SURROUNDED!

CRYSTAL

You don't say.

ICE

Is this some kind of trap!

.....

LUBU

We'll help you this time, remember you owe us!

ALUCARD

Do your thing.

The humans started firing their guns while crystal took a machine gun and started to lay waste at the ghouls.

The lycans got on their feet and began tearing the enemies.

Alucard stood as he seems to be hearing some noises.

He looked around and saw the ghouls seems to have become a little more coordinated.

They don't just attack and bite they try to drag their victims into the dark.

The same thing is happening to the lycans. Some of them are also being pulled into the darkness.

Alucard saw a different ghouls from the shadows. It seems to be commanding them psychically.

Alucard turns up his mind control and battles the controller through his mind.

Alucard's eyes glowed and the ground trembled and the ghouls became mindless once again.

ALUCARD

Attack now!

The ghouls just stood dazed and the human and lycan team tear them up.

Ice followed where Alucard was gazing and ran towards the different looking ghoul.

Ice cuts off its neck and the rest was easy.

Alucard sat down. Valentine and Wayne rushed towards their master and helped him back into the big truck.

VAYNE

Boss needs a pick me up.

Crystal opens one of the cartridges with her blood and gave it to Alucard.

Alucard break the tube of blood and inhales the blood as it turned into a vapor like substance.

Alucard sat steadily as Ice went towards the truck.

ICE

This is the first time we encountered an ambush from the ghouls. You to meet our father.

ALUCARD

Alright.

ICE

Well guard your passage.

EXT. LYCAN SETTLEMENT - DAWN

Alucard's group arrived at the lycan settlement. It was a bustling town and the large doors made of wood opened up and let the trucks in. The place was like a town and to their surprise the lycans went back into their human form.

Ice and Luby also turned back into human form and to everybody's surprise Ice was a woman.

Lycans of course have their clothes and some of the men talked to the villagers.

Alucard, Wayne and Valentine together with Crystal walked towards what seems to be the town hall.

Curious lycans are also gathered there. Edward took charge on keeping an eye on stuff and keeping the men on their best behavior.

ICE
Follow me.

Lubu kept an eye on Alucard's group as they entered the town hall.

INT. TOWN HALL - DAY

Ice and Lubu presented their guest to their father. He was a grey wolf that turned into an older man but not that old.

ICE
Father, I present to you some guests.

BLIZZARD
Guests? This is rare.

LUBU
They have helped us in a ghoulish ambush.

BLIZZARD
Ambush? Tell me.

Ice told the whole story about the attack.

BLIZZARD
I see. Step forward vampire.

Alucard steps forward and the lycans looked at the humans for bite marks in their necks.

BLIZZARD
If you would excuse me.

Blizzard lifted his hand and some lycans lifted up a curtain exposing Alucard to direct sunlight.

Alucard stood there looking at Blizzard.

BLIZZARD
I have heard tales of a daywalker from my father. How did you know my father Glacius?

ALUCARD
We had a duel once.

BLIZZARD
Oh? Tell me more.

Blizzard gave the signal and the lycans covered back the curtain.

ALUCARD

It was a long time ago. We battled for sport.

BLIZZARD

So you are the one responsible for his wounds?

ALUCARD

I also had my fair share.

BLIZZARD

Tell me, why have you come through here?

ALUCARD

I seek the vampire empire. I have some bussiness with the current lord.

ICE

He was also able to tell something is amiss with the ghouls.

BLIZZARD

Ah yes. It was mentioned you fought a different type of ghoul?

ALUCARD

It seems they have a more strategy in their attacks and they are dragging their victims.

BLIZZARD

Then what the scouts says is true.

Blizzard stood and commanded the rest.

BLIZZARD

Leave us.

The lycans left except for Lubu and Ice.

BLIZZARD

Follow me.

INT. WAR ROOM - DAY

Blizzard leads Alucard and his group to the war room and Blizzard opens a map on the table everybody surrounded it and look at the marks.

BLIZZARD

These marks represent ambushes where many of my warriors were unable to fought back.

ICE

They seem to know our method and wait for us to get exhausted.

VAYNE

Why are launching offensives against't the ghouls anyway?

BLIZZARD

They threaten the farms with their deceased bodies and destroy plants for our herd. We have to keep them at bay.

VALENTINE

Fortunately I heard lycans are immune to becoming ghouls.

BLIZZARD

Being immune is one thing. Being eaten is another.

!!!!!!

ICE

What?!

.....

BLIZZARD

It seems whatever is controlling these ghouls are eating anything alive and the biggest they have their sights on are our cattles and of course the lycans.

CRYSTAL

We are here to establish a trade so that these skirmishes with the ghouls may be put down.

BLIZZARD

A trade route sounds good but as long as there is an unknown controlling them, the route itself is in danger.

ALUCARD

Then I propose we search where their base is.

LUBU

It is been speculated that they hide in an underground cave but even with our noses we cannot tell what is inside those caverns.

ICE

And we cannot send a large number of troops due to the small entrances.

VALENTINE

A commando group would be ideal but it is too dangerous.

BLIZZARD

And this is our dillema.

ALUCARD

Do these ambushes have a routine time?

BLIZZARD

No. They attack whenever we go to harvest.

ALUCARD

So they based their actions on you.

BLIZZARD

What do you have in mind?

ALUCARD

A one shot gamble.

VAYNE

Oh boy.

ALUCARD

Have the best warriors rest these week and we will share ouor rations. send out only two of the fastest scout and have them mark which cave ghouls go into.

ICE

What about the cattles?

ALUCARD

They will be the bait.

LUBU

All of them?

ALUCARD

No. Tommorow I'm testing a theory that we gather as much as we can.

BLIZZARD

I cannot risk lives for a theory.

ALUCARD

It's your only way out of this mess.

BLIZZARD

Hmp. As my father would have said.
You are indeed smart or crazy.

ICE

We will prepare a place for your uh...

VAYNE

Associates.

LUBU

Really now?

ALUCARD

The truck should be fine for them.

VAYNE

Objection! At least give us some pillows.

EXT. GRASSLANDS - DAY

Alucard along with his group helped out rounding up some of the cows that are feeding on the grasses.

EDWARD

Why can't we just let them all in in the settlement?

LUBU

We have some of the cows there giving milk, these are just calves growing up.

VAYNE

So these are the ones that are in danger?

ALUCARD

Not really.

VALENTINE

What do you mean boss?

ALUCARD

My theory is correct, not a single ghoul has appeared.

ICE

Care to explain?

ALUCARD

I'll tell you more about it in the war room later. Now we need to get as much cows as we can since this will be the last time we are going for something like this experiment.

ICE

I see.

The lycans drowve their pasture inside the settlement.

INT. WAR ROOM - NIGHT

Alucard and the group are taling at the war room.

BLIZZARD

You plan on letting the warriors give their place in the settlement and have them camp outside?

ALUCARD

This is going to be temporary and I thought you guys pride yourselves in fighting?

LUBU

What is that supposed to mean?

ALUCARD

I mean it like I said. Since we are on a partnership for this mess we might as well save on the food. When was the last time you guys got attacked in the settlement?

ICE

None...

BLIZZARD

What are you up to?

ALUCARD

There is something controlling the ghouls, and it feeds the same day you guys go out to get the food.

LUBU

But there was no attack today..

ALUCARD

IT means it was full yesterday. We can rule out that only one thing is controlling the ghouls in this area.

ICE

Do you mean that unique kind of ghouls?

ALUCARD

I doubt it. It was only a medium to relay command over the horde.

BLIZZARD

When can we expect the result of this?

ALUCARD

In a week, the moment the scouts can locate if the remaining cows get attacked we will know where they will drag them.

BLIZZARD

And how will we confront this treat once we found it?

ALUCARD

Leave that to me.

LUBU

You are using us like bait?!

ALUCARD

I'm using the cows.

ICE

You plan to lead an assault on this unknown enemy yourself?

LUBU

Big talk for a man who does nothing but babble.

Alucard stopped.

VAYNE

Now don't go in with that tone boy.

LUBU

Is that a challenge?!

ALUCARD

Please we are on the same side here.

BLIZZARD

You know, my son is probably uneasy following you without having to see you fight.

.....

LUBU

I challenge you to a duel!

ALUCARD

And what would you do if you win?

.....

VALENTINE

I think boss already won don't you agree?

BLIZZARD

Let's give them something to rise up their spirits. It will take a week for the plan to work anyway. I'm also interested to see how you fight since you will be leading our joint forces into this unknown enemy.

ALUCARD
I don't think it's wise to do that.

VAYNE
The boss is right, what if they attack us when we are not on our guard?

BLIZZARD
I have confident in sending out my warriors to sleep outside if you give us a little display of your power and skills.

ALUCARD
So be it. Tomorrow it is.

LUBU Great!

EXT. GRASSLAND ARENA - DAY

Alucard looked around the arena that seemed to be made in a hurry.

ALUCARD
What was the purpose of this place?

Blizzard answered from where he was sitting.

BLIZZARD
This was used to be an academy or what you would call a proving grounds.

ALUCARD
Oh.. So many have fought here.

BLIZZARD Indeed.

From the sides Alucard group looked with anticipation.

VALENTINE
Wayne why are you so tense?

VAYNE

I finally be able to see the boss in action. It's kind of a bore just seeing him already done with his fight.

CRYSTAL

I myself am interested how he dealth with the leader back in the settlement.

EDWARD

So this is everyones first time seeing him fight?

VALENTINE

Lubu made a great decision.

From the other side Lubu in human form came out and raised his hands as he holds a spear. The lycans watching responded in cheers.

ICE

Be careful. We don't know how he fights.

LUBU

Relax sis. I'll draw out how he really fights. I'm thinking he is the strategist he will probably quit after a few beatings.

ICE

Just don't humiliate him. He is hiding something he doesn't want to show to his companions.

LUBU

Now I'm more interested in getting to know what that is.

Alucard went to his coffin and took out a beautiful sword.

VAYNE

Oh this shit is on!

Lubu spins his spear in approval.

LUBU

Bring it!

.....

Alucard silently steps forward while Lubu dashes.

When they were near each other Lubu darts forward intending to skewer Alucard but Alucard spins and sidesteps and slashes hitting Lubu in the back.

Lubu turns around snarling while Alucard swipes away the blood.

Lubu darts again and this time made multiple thrust which Alucard dodge and parried.

LUBU

GOT YOU!

Lubu made a spin with his spear the first was high which Alucard ducked, the second spin was low while Alucard jumped.

Lubu knew the pattern and immediately went for a stab while Alucard was in mid air, Alucard made use of his sword and used it as a shield and was thrown backwards, he landed on his feet when he looked up Lubu was still coming for him.

LUBU

RAA!!

Lubu made a stab but Alucard spins towards him and delivers a left elbow strike to Lubu's cheek, it was followed by Lubu with a vicious swing of the spear but Alucard ducked and made a leg sweep which caught Lubu off guard. While Lubu was still falling Alucard made a frontal kick and lubu was hit by the side and was thrown a few feet away. he landed on his back then went into a crouching position.

LUBU

That's it! No more games!

Lubu howled and transformed into wolf form and the lycans howl with him.

Lubu dropped the spear and bared his fangs and claws.

ALUCARD

If that is what you desire.

Alucard stood ready with his sword. His eyes glowed and the ground began to tremble.

VAYNE
Boss is serious now.

VALENTINE
This is what I was waiting to see.

EDWARD
What happens when he get's serious?

VAYNE
Shit gets real.

.....

BLIZZARD ENOUGH!

Lubu stood angry.

LUBU
Why father?!

BLIZZARD
This was supposed to be a sport not a fight to the death.

LUBU
We are just fighting for sport.

.....

BLIZZARD
It's enough, I have sense your skill and power Alucard.

ALUCARD
Thank you.

Alucard sheathed his weapon and went back to his side of the arena and put back the sword in his coffin.

LUBU TSK!

The lycans still cheered and Lubu was greeted by his sister.

ICE
Well he is supposed to be a few hundereds years old compared to us.

LUBU

Yeah yeah...

ICE

Do you still have any doubts?

LUBU

He will be a fine leader. But I still don't like him. Like you said he is holding back his power.

ICE

Maybe there are some consequences if he uses a lot. Like the ambush...

LUBU

Yes, I didn't feel any attack like those ghouls suffered.

ICE

He was fighting you on your own terms.

LUBU

damn...

EXT. LYCAN SETTLEMENT - NIGHT

Edward looks around the lycans in their human form getting on with their routine stuff.

EDWARD

And here I think they become wolves every night and just hunt.

CRYSTAL

It seems they have managed control of their transformations.

A couple of kids ran them by playing.

CRYSTAL

Who would have thought they will grow up into fearless warriors.

Vayne and Valentine are looking at the people from the human settlement being friendly with the vendors as well as trading some rations.

VALENTINE

It seems the master was right to make a trade route here.

VAYNE

And when the ghoul treat is gone this will be able to make a better route with the human settlement. The humans made good care of the veggies while the lycans here make good animal breeding.

Alucard silently lay on top of the largest truck. Valentine caught him in her eyes.

VALENTINE

What do you think he is thinking?

VAYNE

Well I have read it before that he was married.

VALENTINE

You rthink something happened to his wife?

VAYNE

That is probably why we are looking for the vampire kingdom.

VALENTINE

SAy if something bad happens...

VAYNE

The boss will handle it.

VALENINE

Right...

INT. WAR ROOM - DAY

A week has passed and just like Alucard predicted the bait was taken.

SCOUT1

Sir. Reporting the details sir.

BLIZZARD

Go ahead.

The scout pointed at the large map where there are a couple of x mark in caves are. He pointed to the west side of the map.

SCOUT1

They took the first number of cows here sir.

LUBU

There was a second attack?

SCOUT1

Yes sir.

The scout pointed at the x mark in the center.

ALUCARD

That is the fastest route to their base.

BLIZZARD

How could you tell?

ALUCARD

The first bait wasn't the original size of your gathering party and whatever is behind this was hungry for more. The first it was being cautious.

BLIZZARD

You may go scout. bring me 300 of our best lycans.

LUBU

300 hundred huh.

ALUCARD

We will divide the men. My company will go through the middle entrance while Lubu and Ice will protect our escape route.

LUBU

We are the ones who will go in the front not your group.

ICE

Lubu..

ALUCARD

Alright, The humans will guard outside, I will have to go with you.

LUBU

Much better. This is our problem to begin with.

BLIZZARD

You will have to follow Alucard's instruction Son.

LUBU

His men will have problems fighting in the dark.

VAYNE

He has a point, we don't have enough lamps and torches to go in there.

VALENTINE

Can't we just bury them in their hideout?

ALUCARD

We have to kill the ones controlling the ghouls then we can try to close the caves.

BLIZZARD

I hope you have some explosives with you? We have been fighting them by melee.

CRYSTAL

We got that covered.

BLIZZARD

Then all we need is time to prepare.

LUBU

We march at dawn and finish this before noon.

ICE

Sounds good to me.

VALENTINE

No objections here.

ALUCARD

Then its settled.

EXT. OUTSIDE THE CAVE - DAWN

The army of humans with their heavily armed trucks are at the entrance of the cave while Lubu began marching the 300 selected Lycans inside the cave.

LUBU
Everyone Let's move.

.....

Alucard was looking at Crystal and Edward who leads the humans guarding the entrance of the cave.

VALENTINE
Will they be alright sir?

ALUCARD
I hope.

VAYNE
Let's got boss.

The lycans put some torches on the long passages for some humans that followed near the entrance.

INT. INSIDE THE CAVE, PATH BRANCH - DAWN

The passage was dark and so far there were no indications of ghouls along the way. Lubu used the lycan's nose to follow the scent of blood. Alucard also knew of it.

LUBU
This scent...

ICE
It's from the cows.

ALUCARD
And some lycans.

They followed the trail while the lycans continue to put torches marking their way as they come across a fork.

VAYNE Strange..

VALENTINE
ITs too quiet.

....

Vayne and Valentine took their weapons in ready form when they saw Lubu made a stop signal.

They enter a large clearing and the solor of the cave was covered in blood. There were some ghouls atanding idly and their attention was focus to a large humonculus like being eating the cows and the dead lycans.

ICE

What is that?!

LUBU

I don't know, but were killing it.

Lubu howled as they transform into beast form.

The large thing saw them and it looked like it was rooted to the ground and made a cry that made the ghouls rise up and battle the lycans.

Alucard scans the battle and then a noise was heard from Valentine's radio.

EDWARD

The ghouls have started to come out out of nowhere! Please hurry up inside!

VALENTINE

Roger!

Vayne looked beside him and saw that Alucard has already made it way to the giant who was just sitting and seems to be ordering the ghouls by telekenesis.

VAYNE

The boss is on the move!

VALENTINE

Will stay behind here and just snipe some ghouls that go in his way.

Alucard stood facing the the giant and Alucard unleashes his own telekenesis.

GIANT

ROOOOARR!!

Alucard battle the giant by telekenesis and the whole place began to rumble.

Some of the ghouls began to go back to their basic idle instinch which helped the Lycan's alot.

GIANT

So you are the one that blocked me.

ALUCARD

Nice to meet you.

GIANT

You have a nice plan. Too bad it has one hole.

ALUCARD

What?

GIANT

I have an unlimited number of undead to kill the ones from the outside and trap your flank.

ALUCARD

That unless I kill you first.

The giant howled and made an attempt to crush Alucard but Alucard vanishes from the spot and the large arm hits empty ground.

GIANT

You intend to block my mind yet you cannot stop my voice.

The giant made a loud call and from other path ways more ghouls join into the fray.

GIANT

I cannot call the ones outside but there is enough here leave you guys weakened and when that comes...

A bullet hits the giant eye and its head but it just regenerated.

GIANT

Like I said, This is a race to the finish between my army and your stamina. And the goal is your lives.

From another area a number of vampires in armor pushes in blazing their guns as they push their way in.

MAKAROV

This is their place!

Makarov sees the chaos between Lycans and Saw Alucard jumping out of the way of the giant.

Makarov's soldiers got in and also saw the battle.

SOLDIER

What is going on?!

MAKAROV

Our mission comes first, destroy the ghouls.

The vampire soldiers helped in the battle when Makarov and Ice got near Alucard.

ALUCARD

Who are you?

MAKAROV

Makarov from the vampire kingdom elite. Our mission is to end the ghoulish threat. What is that thing?!

ALUCARD

The ghoulish threat.

ICE

My head it feels like it is trying to do something.

ALUCARD

Hoo.. It's trying to use telekenesis too bad it's only working against the ghouls its commands.

MAKAROV

So if we kill this we can end the threat.

ALUCARD

Yes.

MAKAROV

MEN FIRE AT THE GIANT!

The vampires began open firing their guns but the giant seems to be regenerating fast.

ALUCARD

Makarov have your men help the lycans in clearing out the ghouls, leave this one to me.

MAKAROV

I hope you have a plan.

ALUCARD

I do. Ice, the moment I give you the signal buy me as much time as possible.

ICE

What is the plan?

ALUCARD

I'm going to kill it but I'm having trouble finding his vital organs.

GIANT

Fool, no one can destroy me I'll just regenerate. The moment you let go of your telekinesis I'm ordering the rest of the horde within the area to converge here!

ALUCARD

We'll see...

GIANT

What are you doing?!

ALUCARD

I changed my mind.

GIANT

!!!!!!

ALUCARD

I'm going to stop him from regenerating, Ice have Makarov and his team clear out the ghouls here while I'll block all of this Giants abilities.

Alucard looked at Vayne and Valentine and points out the giant.

ALUCARD

Now!

Alucard uses his telekenesis and the Ghouls dawdle along, the lycans hurried and finish them and proceeded to attack the giant, Alucard was a few steps away while Vayne and Valentine poured all weaponry they had.

ALUCARD

Lubu! arm the explosives Crystal gave you and throw it at the giant!

Lubu heard Alucard and set the timer to 10 minutes, although the giant can't call for help it is still a giant and Alucard kneeled from using his power to block its regenerating capabilities.

The lycans manages to avoid direct impact from the giants swings and can slash and run from it.

Makarov's men are also peppering it with bullet holes.

Lubu throws the pack of explosives at the giant.

GIANT

RAAAAAAA!!!

The giant attempts to get the explosive with its right hand but ice ran through it and slashes the muscles then darts away, the giant tried to grab it with its left hand but Lubu slashes its muscles then also darts away.

ICE

That blast is probably strong enough to cause a cave in.

Alucard kneeling made a call for retreat.

ALUCARD

Lubu have everybody fall back!

MAKAROV

Which way are you going out?!

Just follow us!

Vayne and Valentine grabs Alucard and drags him while he still battles the giant. Alucard smiled at the giant.

ALUCARD

Got you.

Alucard extends his right hand and a blood tricked his nose. He closes his right hand into a fist and destroys the mind of the giant.

The giant made a loud cry but the explosions started to cause a chain reaction and the groups started their run towards the exit..

EXT. OUTSIDE THE CAVE - DAY

The men are busy firing at the ghouls when they felt the ground rumbled.

EDWARD

Is that what I think it is?

CRYSTAL

EVERYONE, HOLD THE LINE!!

The group fought more fiercer at firing at the ghouls, when then they appear to be low on ammo.

SOLDIER1

LAST MAG!

SOLDIER2

I'm out!

A soldier tosses a mag at the soldier who ran out of bullets.

SOLDIER3

MAKE IT COUNT!

Then from the cave the lycans appeared and tore the ghouls to shreds.

CRYSTAL

THEY ARE BACK!

Lubu and Ice also joined the action and finishes the rest.
